

UNIT 3 PAGE 28-29

1.	Active	Milo designs a banner using Corel Draw. S            V            O	To change Active sentence into Passive sentence, just like in Bahasa Indonesia structure, the Subject of the Active sentence becomes the Object of the Passive sentence (after “by”) and the Object of the Active sentence becomes the Subject of the Passive Sentence.  And the verb in the Active sentence is changed into “be + verb 3” Active: S + Verb 1 +O Passive: S + be (is/am/are) +Verb 3
	Passive	The banner is designed by Milo using Corel Draw. S                          V            O
2.	Active	The couriers deliver the gifts on time. S    V            O
	Passive	The gifts are delivered by the couriers on time. S                          V            O
3.	Active	Bella’s father loves her unconditionally. S                          V            O
	Passive	Bella is loved by her father unconditionally. S            V            O

Direction: Change these sentences into Passive ones.

1. Robert walks his dogs every night. The dogs walked with Robert every night.
2. They clean the windows once a week. The windows are cleaned by them once a week.
3. People eat 40 million hamburgers every day. 40 million hamburgers are eaten by people every day.
4. We use recycled paper for our books. Recycled paper is used by us for our books.
5. They make very good cars in Japan.
6. The teacher always answers the students' questions.
7. Some people raise sugar cane in Hawaii.

8. The technician repairs the computer laboratory network.
9. The secretary sends and replies emails every day.
10. Larry generously donates money to the homeless shelter.
11. The students report the progress of their projects every week.
12. The manager sometimes gives away some concert tickets to some lucky students.
13. Bill delivers some milk to some of his neighbors before school in the morning.
14. The cleaning crew vacuums and dusts the office every night.
15. The wedding planner makes all the reservations and arrangements of a wedding.