

ADDITIONAL EXERCISES ON IF-CLAUSE TYPE 1

Direction: Study unit 4 page 36-37. After that do exercise 11. Then, do the same exercise below.

1. If I (find) find your phone, I (give) will give it back to you.
2. If I (have) have enough apples, I (bake) will bake an apple cake for you.
3. If there (be) were no oxygen on earth, life as we know it (not, exist) would not exist
4. If you boil water, it (disappear) will disappear into the atmosphere as vapor.
5. If it (not rain) doesn't rain tomorrow, we (go) will go for a picnic in the park.
6. If you (not win) don't win the scholarship, your father (be) will be very disappointed.
7. If they (not study) don't study harder, they (not pass) won't pass the exam.
8. If the man (ask) asks more politely, I (buy) will buy him a drink.
9. Peggy (go) will go shopping if she (have) have time in the afternoon.
10. If Mary (be late) is late tonight, we (go) will go without her.
11. If we (not have) don't have time this afternoon, we (meet) will meet here tomorrow at the same time.
12. Michael's teacher (call) will call his parents if he (keep) keeps texting messages during the lesson.
13. My father always (help) helps do my homework if he (have) has time.
14. If they (surf) surf on the internet, they (find) will find information about the topic
15. If you hate walking in the mountains, you (not enjoy) will not enjoy the tour.
16. If the old man (get) gets proper medical care, he (probably, survive) will probably survive
17. If we sneak out quietly, nobody (notice) will notice.
18. If his parents (go) go shopping in the afternoon, I (must / look) must look after my little sister.
19. Sea water is salty. If the oceans (consist) consists of fresh water, there (be) would be plenty of water to irrigate all of the deserts in the world to provide an abundant food supply for the entire population of the earth.
20. Jack's hobby is collecting stamps from all over the world. If he (travel) travels to a new country, he (spend, always) will always spend time looking for new stamps.